

The Singapore STEM education study: STEM applied learning through using Tynker & Drones

Doris Lim and Tan Yew Hock, STEM Inc, Science Centre Singapore

This workshop will take you through Singapore's STEM Education journey, provide learning opportunities for students to acquire and apply their STEM knowledge and skills in solving real-world problems. Participants will experience the STEM lesson demonstration of coding a drone to fly with the simple "Drag-and-Drop" programming application, Tynker.